

Table of Contents

Abbreviations.....	9
Transcriptions of Persian and Arabic Alphabets.....	11
Manuscripts .....	13
Acknowledgements.....	15
Introduction .....	17
CHAPTER ONE.....	21
1. Ferdowsī and the Šāhnāmeḥ.....	21
1.1. Ferdowsī .....	21
1.2. The Šāhnāmeḥ.....	23
1.3. Daqīqī .....	26
1.4. Ferdowsī’s sources in composing the Šāhnāmeḥ .....	28
CHAPTER TWO .....	37
2. The appearance of Zoroaster .....	37
2.1. The appearance of Zoroaster in the Šāhnāmeḥ .....	37
2.2. The religious war of Iran and Tūrān.....	46
2.3. Zoroaster and his followers.....	54
2.4. Zoroaster and Abraham .....	54
2.5. The cypress of Kašmar .....	58
2.6. The Avesta.....	59
2.7. The good and pure religion.....	65
CHAPTER THREE.....	71
3. Zoroastrian beliefs .....	71
3.1. The concept of God.....	71
3.1.1. The term Ourmazd .....	76
3.2. Amesha Spentas .....	79
3.3. Sorūš (Srōš) .....	82
3.4. Ahriman.....	92
3.4.1. Ahrimanic people (people who obey Ahriman).....	97
3.4.2. Ahriman uses Deception.....	98

3.5. Dīv (demon).....	102
3.5.1. The dīvs of Māzandarān .....	107
3.5.2. The physical appearance of dīvs .....	110
3.5.3. Dīvs use deception .....	111
3.5.4. The dīvs in the Šāhnāmeḥ.....	113
3.5.4.1. Āz and Nīyāz (greed and need).....	116
3.6. Creation of the world and humans .....	121
3.6.1. Geyūmart, the first human or the first king?.....	124
3.7. Magic (Jādū) .....	125
3.8. Fairies (Parī) .....	128
3.9. Farreh (Glory).....	130
3.9.1. Keyān glory or royal glory.....	130
3.9.1.1. Visibility of the glory .....	135
3.9.1.2. Divine glory deflects magic.....	136
3.9.2. Heroes have glory .....	136
3.9.3. The glory of Zoroastrian religion.....	137
3.9.4. The glory of mobeds.....	137
3.9.5. The glory of the Iranians .....	138
3.10. Wisdom and knowledge .....	138
3.10.1. The praise of wisdom and the wise.....	141
3.10.2. Religious obedience versus wisdom .....	143
3.10.3. Knowledge.....	145
3.11. Water .....	146
3.12. Happiness and Delight.....	149
3.13. Oppression and injustice.....	150
3.14. Truth and lies .....	153
3.15. The tripartite principles of Zoroastrianism (Zoroastrian ethics) .....	155
3.15.1. Good thoughts.....	155
3.15.2. Good words.....	156
3.15.3. Good deeds .....	156
3.16. The use of sacred numbers and their multiples .....	157
3.17. Revenge as a divine duty .....	159
3.18. Death .....	162
3.18.1. Seeking a remedy for death .....	165
3.18.2. Činwad Bridge .....	166
3.18.3. Heaven and Hell.....	167
CHAPTER FOUR.....	173
4. Zoroastrian rituals and practices.....	173

4.1. Ablution.....	173
4.2. Āfrīnagān.....	175
4.3. Bāž and Barsam .....	176
4.4. Dak̄meh.....	184
4.4.1. Preparing the corpse to be put into dak̄mah.....	189
4.4.2. Mourning and Lamentation .....	190
4.5. Fire .....	191
4.5.1. The holiness of Fire and donation to it.....	191
4.5.2. Ātaš Niyāyeš.....	194
4.5.3. Fire as qibla.....	195
4.5.4. The term ātaš-parast (fire worshipper and fire attendant).....	197
4.5.5. Giving of sweet-smelling wood (incense) to the fire .....	198
4.5.6. The Fire temples.....	198
4.6. Kostī (girdle).....	208
4.7. Marriage .....	210
4.7.1. Xwēdōdah (next-of-kin marriage).....	211
4.8. Mobedān (priests).....	213
4.9. Niyāyeš (praise of God).....	221
4.10. Nowrūz, Mehregān and Sadeh feasts .....	225
4.10.1. The Nowrūz feast.....	226
4.10.2. The Mehregān feast.....	231
4.10.3. The Sadeh feast.....	232
4.11. Swearing Oaths and its Objects.....	234
4.11.1. Beings and objects sworn by .....	237
4.11.2. Contract breaking and its consequences.....	237
Conclusions .....	243
Bibliography .....	249
Index.....	263