

Contents

Introduction – Editors	7
Chapter 1. The Theory and Practice of the Press Law in Poland – Jacek Sobczak, Jędrzej Skrzypczak	9
Chapter 2. Change in the standard of freedom of press or its rationalisation? – Jacek Sobczak	19
Chapter 3. “Freedom of speech” and “wolność słowa” – around certain conceptual differences between the terms – Bartosz Hordecki –	31
Chapter 4. Regulation of Defamation in Europe and in Poland and Legal Liability of Journalists. A Guarantor or Killer of Free Speech in the Public Sphere? – Jędrzej Skrzypczak	41
Chapter 5. Journalist’s profession and personal rights protection – Norbert Gill	59
Chapter 6. European Press Law in the Face of Challenges of the Contemporary World – Jędrzej Skrzypczak	71
Chapter 7. Conscience of Media – Tadeusz Kononiuk	79
Chapter 8. Professional Status of Journalists in Selected European Union Member States – Jędrzej Skrzypczak	93
Chapter 9. The audiovisual media service market versus the cross-border use of digital content – Katarzyna Chalabińska Jentkiewicz	103
Chapter 10. Disputes over Public Service Media in Poland in the Light of European Standards – Jędrzej Skrzypczak	117
Chapter 11. The legal framework for electronic works – main trends in self-regulation, legislation and jurisdiction – Anna Wilińska-Zelek	129
Chapter 12. The right to be forgotten – Joanna Buchalska	139
Chapter 13. Related Rights In Publishing – Ksenia Kakareko	151
Chapter 14. Legal deposits in Polish law. A hardship for publishers or rational instrument? – Maria Gołda-Sobczak	165
Chapter 15. The issue of surreptitious advertising in Polish media. Analysis in the scope of media studies and legal issues – Szymon Ossowski	175
Contributors	185