

Double Reeds along the Great Silk Route

Contents

	Preface	i
	I: History and Dissemination
1	Double-Reed Instruments in North Africa Jürgen Elsner	1
2	The Mizmâr in the Arab World: A Historical Sketch Anne van Oostrum	17
3	Double-Reed Instruments: Looking for Historical Connections between the East African Coast and the Great Silk Road Timkehet Teffera	35
4	Instruments at the Crossroads: An Organology of the Vietnamese Shawm Esbjörn Wettermark	51
5	Peering into the Thumb Hole: The Shifting Lineages Liu Xiangkun	63
	II: Performance Contexts
6	The Cultural Function of the Sri Lankan Horanawa Chinthaka Prageeth Meddegoda	81
7	Gender in Zurna Practices in Traditional Contexts in Western Turkey Şebnem Sençerman	97
8	The Preservation of the Pi Gayok Rewadee Ungpho	109

9	Playing the Serunai in Kampung Stong, Kelantan Gisa Jähnichen	119
10	The Sangk(h)a and the Tarompet: Musicological Representants of a Historical Cultural Change in West Java Overlooked? Uwe Umberto Paetzold	133
11	The Malay Nobat: A History of Encounters, Accommodation, and Development Raja Iskandar Bin Raja Halid	153

III: Sounds of Otherness

12	The Otherness of Zurla: Traditional Music, Local Identifications, and Change Rastko Jakovljevic	167
13	Charumera and the Representation of the Other in Japan Terada Yoshitaka	185

IV: Revival

14	Nowruz, the Persian New Year, and its Contemporary Interpretation on the Persian Sornā Sahereh Astaneh	199
15	Renaissance of Folk Double Reeds in France Yves Defrance	207

	Brief Author Biographies	222
--	---------------------------------	-----