

Contents

Foreword	7
Introduction:
Global Challenges at the End of the Cold War: A Personal Account of the Czech Republic	11
How International Law and Human Rights Inspired the Velvet Revolution: A Tribute to President Vaclav Havel	17
International Law and the Political Crisis in Venezuela	25
International Law Challenges Facing the Biden Administration in the Next Two Years	33
International Law, the United Nations Charter, and Russia’s War in Ukraine: The Relevance of Law in International Crisis Situations	41
International Law, the United States Constitution, and the Biden Admin- istration’s Ability to Implement U.S. International Legal Obligations	51
International Law, Climate Change, and the Global Migration Crisis	57
United States–China Relations: Great Power Rivalry in the 21 st Century	63
Epilogue: Reimagining Vaclav Havel’s Thoughts on the Resurgence of Au- thoritarianism International Law and Dictatorial Regimes	71
Introduction	71
The Relationship Between International Law and Specific Dictatorial Regimes	77
Middle East Dictatorial Regimes	103
African Dictatorial Regimes	122
Latin America Dictatorial Regimes	140
Asian Dictatorial Regime	151
Conclusion	166

Contents

Conclusion 169

Bibliography 171